

March 10, 2025

Dear A.Y. McDonald Pumps Division Customer,

As we continue our commitment to provide high-quality pump products, we want to inform you of an upcoming price adjustment. Due to ongoing increases in material, manufacturing, and operational costs, we will be implementing a price increase of 3-5% on average, effective April 8, 2025.

Advanced copies of the new pump price list in Excel and PDF formats will be available to registered users on our website on March 31, 2025. To access the advanced copies, please register or log in to our customer portal at aymcdonald.com by clicking on the Login icon found in the top right corner of our website. If you would like a link to the new price lists sent to you automatically, visit our homepage to sign up for A.Y. Alerts. Should you need assistance with pricing or logging in to our customer portal, please contact the pump department, call our Customer Service Department at 1-800-292-2737, or email sales@aymcdonald.com.

A.Y. McDonald Pumps Division appreciates your understanding and thanks you for your support of our business. Please contact the pump department or me directly with any questions you may have.

Respectfully,
